NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Hamilton scandal is quieting down. The nurse, Mrs. Donnelly, is pronounced out of danger, and there will be no trial for murder. The continued absence of Mr. Hamilton creates the suspicion that he is arranging a separation from his wife.

CARLISLE GRAHAM announces that he is ready to repeat his trip over Niagara Falls if any one will make it a financial object to him. He would be wiser to economize his single experience and lecture upon it. He has made a journey in which nobody is likely to follow him.

The arrivals of emigrants at New York during August numbered 23,461 who came by steamer. The arrivals in August, 1888, were 25,976. The total for the seven months ending with August was 230,950; for the corresponding period in 1888 it was 293,951. The decline is 28 per cent.

The Flack conspiracy cases are before the grand jury to-day. It is expected that indictments will be found against the four worthies, Flack, Monell, Wright and Meeks. The charge of forgery as well as conspiracy is likely to be preferred against the latter. The doors of the state prison are yawning for four as sick Democrats "as ever scuttled ship or cut a throat."

THE miners in the Illinois coal regions have accepted the reduction of 74 cents a ton proposed by the operators, with the exception of those employed in the mines of Wm. L. Scott, the "Great Scott" of the recent Democratic administration. Mr. Scott proposed a reduction of 15 cents per ton, and because his terms were not instantly accepted, closed his mines for a year. Work will soon be resumed in the rest of the Illinois region.

CONGRESSMAN BURROWS of Michigan closed his stumping tour in Louisiana today waiting to witness the election to-day, having been called home by illness in his family. But he reports that a fair election is impossible. The negroes have been so frightened by the threats of the regulators that they dare not go the polls. What Mr. Burrows has seen will be excellent testimony when the House comes to pass upon the claim of candidate Tola to a seat.

Gov. Lowry has put down that "negro insurrection" in Mississippi without bloodshed. He ordered out the state militia to Greenwood, and found on arriving there a large army of well armed volunteers ready for any work of blood. But there had been no insurrection, and no negroes were to be found. This is about the size of every negro insurrection when hunted to its source, but it does not always end without a little fun for the white Democrats who go out gunning for the peaceful blacks. They do not like to go home until they have bagged some game.

Eyes that unflinching Bourbon shame the New Orleans Times Democrat, is forced to cry out against the burning of a negro church in Goulsboro, where a riot took place with shooting incidents. It denounces the act as a "wanton atrocity," a "deliberate crime," and says that "not a word can be uttered in palliation." The white men who committed it, it declares, "are a disgrace to their state and their race." It calls for "rigid investigation" and "extreme punishment," but these latter words are likely to be regarded as fine humor by the criminals. Who ever heard of a crime against negroes being punished in Louisiana?

THE Sun, in its description of the great Labor parade in New York yesterday, says: "With one or two minor exceptions the men in line seemed to be well satisfied with their lot. The mottoes of defiance and discontent which were so numerous at all labor gatherings a year ago were rare yesterday. There were no socialistic banners, no blood-colored emblems of anarchy, no crying out against capital, no threats of vengeance. The paraders were orderly, cheerful workmen." This is an interesting and gratifying change, and gives deep significance to the fact that Democratic free trade has given place to the Hephaestean protection party in national affairs.

SHERIFF GOLDNER of Queens county has actually suppressed Sunday base ball playing at Ridgewood, after long and hard fight. But he is not to suppress the Sunday saloon. One of these is kept by Deputy Sheriff Oltusch. Last Sunday this dive was open, and dancing and liquor selling were carried on all day. A gentleman asked Oltusch if it was not against the law to sell liquor on Sunday, and received a blow in answer to his curiosity. The woman bar-tender attempted to interfere, and received a brutal blow in the face from this model county official. Note: Sunday base ball does not enjoy the protection of David B. Hill, the "one true friend" of the Sunday saloon.

DARWIN HENRY, an expert electrician and engineer in the employ of the East River Lighting Company of New York, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon while adjusting a wire in the company's dynamo room. He was working among hundreds of wires overhead, when his ladder slipped and he grasped a live wire in each hand. He fell to the floor unconscious, and it is believed that death was instantaneous. The charge that went through his body was 1,000 volts. Two weeks ago the engineer of the company received a shock of 2,000 volts and was not seriously injured. These two accidents will only serve to confuse still more the question of execution by electricity.

THERE was a monster mass meeting of workmen in Cooper Union, New York, yesterday, to demand the reduction of the working day to eight hours. Among the speakers was Prof. George Gunton, who came to Chautauqua last week to defend teachers against the attacks of Rev. Washington Gladden, and whom Dr. Gladden proved to be a representative of the Standard Oil Company. Another speaker was S. E. Shevillet, the notorious Anarchist orator from Hungary. It is pretty difficult to make the labor movement respectable when it allows such representatives of monopolies as Gunton and such foreign blatherskites as Shevillet to lead it. The workmen would do better to remember that they are living in America and not in England or Poland.

THE CRONIN MURDER TRIAL.

Some of the Questions that Jurors May Answer.

THE LONDON STRIKE.

The Men Still Making Threats of What They May Do.

"JACK THE RIPPER" SCARE.

IN CRONIN MURDER TRIAL TO-DAY.

Questions that the Judge will Permit Being Asked the Jurors.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Upon the opening of the Cronin trial this morning the matter of the proper questions to be submitted to the jurors was again taken up. The Court said: "I have examined these questions very carefully, and find that a number of them are practically duplicates, and there are certain ones that I could not permit, as I deem them improper. I should like to have the State now simply say that these three questions should be permitted: First, have you formed an opinion as to whether Dr. Cronin was taken to the Carlson Cottage by the horse and buggy engaged by Daniel Coughlin from Dinan, the liverman. Second, have you an opinion as to whether or not Martin Burke, one of the defendants, was the tenant of said cottage? Third, have you an opinion that the so-called Clan-na-Gael Society is in any way to blame for the death of Dr. Cronin?" Discussion finally settled these three questions. The court permitted the addition of these two questions: "Have you formed an opinion as to whether the death of Dr. Cronin was the result of a conspiracy?" and "Have you formed an opinion as to whether any of these defendants was a member of the said conspiracy?" The panel was then called and the lawyers entered upon the long and arduous task of selecting a jury.

Old Yarmouth Celebrating.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
YARMOUTH, Mass., Sept. 3.—The observance of the two hundred and fifty anniversary of the settlement of Old Yarmouth has evoked a wonderful degree of enthusiasm and has drawn together from all parts of the country many thousands of people. The town has long since left for other scenes. The town has not had as thorough a waking up for many years. The observance of this anniversary really commenced under the auspices of the First Congregational Church on Sunday. This old church has survived all the mutations of time and still has the largest membership of any church or society in town. Ten churches participated in the services. The whole town is robed in a festive costume of bunting, flowers and evergreens. The streets are lined with people. The oldest buildings and those of historical interest, handsome arches span the streets. The principal exercises of the day consisted of an oration by Philip Hovey Sears and a poem written by Mrs. Mary Bray.

SANDWICH ALSO CELEBRATES.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
SANDWICH, Mass., Sept. 3.—This ancient town has put on its festive attire to-day in commemoration of the two hundred and fifty anniversary of its incorporation. A more favorable day could not have been desired. The wandering sons and daughters of the town have come home in large numbers to do their part in this unusual event, and the old town is full of life and activity, with strangers arriving on every train. The day's festivities were ushered in by the ringing of bells at 6 A. M. Following this a band concert entertained the arriving crowds. The invited guests, the orator of the day, a number of Grand Army Posts and Masonic bodies arrived at 9 A. M. The procession was immediately formed and in four divisions marched through the gayly decorated streets to the Casino where appropriate exercises were held. Dinner was served in a big tent. Fifteen hundred plates were laid. The post-prandial programme opened with music. Frank H. Pope, of Leominster, a native of the town, acted as Toast Master. The first toast was: "New England, land of the brave." The toast of the country's prosperity, and from which came the sturdy and brainy men who have developed the country, tapped its resources, been its mental and financial prop, and placed it at the head of the procession of civilized nations. Hon. John D. Long responded. Then followed a poem written by Miss Mary A. Conroy, of Roxbury.

The Death Record.

J. C. McCoy, one of the pioneers of the West, died yesterday at his home in Kansas City, aged 78 years.
William C. Ludwig, one of the foremost business men and philanthropists of Philadelphia, died at his home in that city yesterday, aged 79 years.
The Rev. Lorenzo T. Bennett, aged 84 years, the oldest Episcopal clergyman in the State and for 50 years pastor of Christ Church, Guilford, Conn., died at the station in that town yesterday while waiting for a train.
William Griffiths died at East Plain, N. Y., on Tuesday, at the age of 78 years.

A Liquor Law Held "Unconstitutional."

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 3.—Judge Boland yesterday rendered a decision in the test case made by the saloon men of the validity of the penalty clause of the Sunday law. The law requires the trial judge to revoke the license of every saloon-keeper convicted of selling liquor on Sunday. A City ordinance contending that such a law is unconstitutional was sustained by Judge Boland held that the ordinance and the law are unconstitutional, and dismissed the cases of 15 saloon-men charged with violating the law.

The Demand Made for Holzhay Denied.

BESSEMER, Mich., Sept. 3.—United States Agent Holzhay arrived here yesterday and declined the prisoner Holzhay on behalf of the United States. His demand was based on the prisoner's confession that he had robbed the United States mail on the Wisconsin Central Railroad. The authorities here will not listen to the claim.

A "Jack the Ripper" Scare.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Intense excitement was caused in the central district of London this morning by the announcement that an old man had stabbed two women of the town and had declared his company. A "Jack the Ripper" scare was raised and the scene of the affray was in a short time crowded by an immense throng of people.

Unable to Serve.

New York, Sept. 3.—Joseph Pulitzer is unable to serve on the Site Committee of the World's Fair on account of poor health.

THAT STRIKE IN CITY OF LONDON.

The Dock Laborers Still Making Threats—The Situation This Afternoon.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—There is nothing in the strike situation this morning to inspire hope of immediate settlement of the questions at issue between the dock men and the dock companies. Sir Donald Currie, waited upon the officials of the companies again to-day and urged the acceptance of yesterday's proposal to allow ship-owners to employ their own men to load and unload vessels.

Mr. Scowen, for the dock companies, replied that they could not accede to this proposition, but would be willing to enter into a further discussion of all the questions involved with a Committee of the ship owners.

Sir Donald said he regretted that a definite meeting could not be given to the ship-owners but expressed a willingness to consent to a joint conference. He requested that the dock officials express their views in writing for submission to the ship-owners at a meeting later in the day, to which Mr. Scowen assented. The result of this conference destroys the chance of arriving at a settlement of the strike to-day and embitters the feeling of the men.

The Chairman of the Trades Unions' Congress at Dundee, in an address, dwelt upon the feeling of discontent prevalent among the working classes, owing to the uncertainty of their employment and the unequal distribution of the fruits of their labor. He advocated the adoption of a legislative enactment making eight hours a day's work as a step in the right direction.

At a meeting of the Tower Hill strikers this forenoon it was decided to continue the strike. Threats have been made that if Sir Donald Currie takes his vessels to Southampton ships will be taken to prevent a single ship from unloading.

At Rochester the police have been compelled to interfere for the protection of the men unloading vessels in the Medway who were attacked by strikers. The dockmen who had been employed on grain and flour laden ships here have struck for an increase of a shilling a day in wages and work on all the vessels has been suspended.

Notes of the Stage.

The New York Times says a revival of Robertson's comedies is contemplated at the Criterion Theatre, London, during William's absence in this country. These plays were not successful when revived by the Bancrofts at the Haymarket and by Mr. Abbey at Wallack's.

John Hadley has secured another triumph. His latest play, "Clorinda," in August, 1888, played at the Casino, in Diapire, in presence of a notable audience, including the Marquis of Salisbury and Lord Lytton.

Bronson Howard's "One of Our Girls" is to be played in England under the title of "Cousin Kate." Miss Alice Atherton will be cast Shipley. The piece will be tried first at the provinces.

A forthcoming new play in London is a dramatization of Thomas Hardy's novel "The Woodlanders," by Messrs. Jarvis and Grein.

Alfred Calmout, author of "The Amber Heart," will produce a new three-act dramatic fancy in verse this autumn.

King of the Coke Trade.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 3.—Twenty years ago Henry Clay Frick was a book keeper in a flour-mill and distillery at Bradford, Fayette County. To-day he is the King of the Connellsville Coke Regions. He has been given the title because the H. C. Frick Coke Company owns 8,000 of the 12,000 acres of land in the territory. By the recent purchases of the plants of the J. M. Schoenmaker Company and the Moore & Company, Mr. Frick will be enabled to control the coke market of America and make his own prices. He will turn out over five times the amount of coke that will be turned out by the McCreary Company, which is now the second largest concern in the region. The purchase of the two big plants referred to occurred last week. The Schoenmaker Company owns the second largest coke plant in the region, and the transfer to Frick included 5,000 acres of valuable coal lands, 1,500 ovens, 400 freight cars and all contracts, franchises, etc. The Moore Company had 570 ovens.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 3.—At a conference of Window Glass Manufacturers and Representatives of the Workers' Association to-day the manufacturers offered to compromise by paying the workers 80 cents a day, and to give the workmen, who insist upon a wage of $1.00, a long struggle is anticipated.

THE FLACK SCANDAL WILL BE PROBED.

Charge of Judge Gillespie to Grand Jury at City Sessions.

New York, Sept. 3.—Judge Gillespie, in the Court of General Sessions to-day, swore in the Grand Jury for the September term and called their special attention to the alleged fraud perpetrated in the Flack divorce case. His reference to the matter was thorough, and it is thought that the Grand Jury will lose no time in carrying out his instructions to "probe the scandal to its lowest depths and to move to the light and the operations of the men and women who connected therewith, no matter who the axe falls." Many friends of the Sheriff and others connected with the case were in the Court Room.

Sitting Bull's Recovery.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
FORT YATES, N. Dak., Sept. 3.—John Grass, the Chief of the Blackfoot, and former orator and law-giver of the Sioux Nation, is dying. He is alleged by his friends, from the effects of hereditary poison mixed with his food by a brace of young bucks, adherents of Sitting Bull. The alleged poisoners were killed to Standing Rock, where Sitting Bull now is. The Indian medicine men and white physicians who are attending Grass have abandoned all hopes of his recovery. He is the dearest most of the time.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Notes on Wall-Street To-Day—The Closing Quotations.

New York, Sept. 3.—The stock market today, with a short and unsettled day, activity was accompanied by decided strength, which carried prices up so rapidly that a smart reaction occurred before the list settled down. First prices were generally 4 and 1/2 per cent. higher than Saturday's closing figures. Northern Pacific, Union Pacific and Delaware & Hudson were exceptional with gains of 4 and 1 per cent. respectively. The most remarkable movements were in Northern Pacific preferred and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, the former, after opening up 4 1/2 per cent. and reaching a record of 155, but afterwards rose again to 174. Burlington opened up 4 1/2 per cent. and declined to 108, from which it rallied but a small fraction. At 11 o'clock the market was still active and strong at the best prices reached.

declared in the platform adopted by the last National Convention, are hereby requested to send delegates to a state convention to be held at Saratoga Springs on September 25, 1889, at 10 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Secretary of State, Comptroller, State Treasurer, Attorney General, State Engineer and Surveyor, and a Judge of the Court of Appeals; also for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Each Assembly District in the state will be entitled to representation in accordance with the laws established by the State Convention of 1887, and upon which subsequent conventions have been held.

J. N. KNAPP, Chairman.

FRANK S. SMITH, Secretary.

Delegates are appointed among the counties of this section of the state as follows:

Albany, 10; Dutchess, 10; Ulster, 10; Sullivan, 10; Greene, 10; Delaware, 10; Schoharie, 10; Hamilton, 10; Westchester, 10; Dutchess, 10; Ulster, 10;
Orange, 10; Sullivan, 10; Columbia, 10; Sullivan, 10.

THE CALL FOR A WHISKY CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the State of New York and all other citizens who favor the principles of taxation, economy and reform, and who are opposed to INEQUITABLE AND OPPRESSIVE SUMPTUARY LEGISLATION, are invited to elect three delegates and three alternates from each Assembly District to attend a State Convention to be held at Saratoga Springs, on Tuesday, the first day of October, 1889, at 10 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers, to be voted for at the coming election, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

EDWARD MURPHY, Jr., Chairman.

CORR. MYER, Secretary.

A COMPARISON OF EXPENSES.

The Albany Argus publishes the following table of figures to show that the state taxes of 1889 are higher than they have been before in thirteen years. We cheerfully give place to them:

Year.	Total taxes.
1876	$5,512,211
1877	5,512,211
1878	5,512,211
1879	5,512,211
1880	5,512,211
1881	5,512,211
1882	5,512,211
1883	5,512,211
1884	5,512,211
1885	5,512,211
1886	5,512,211
1887	5,512,211
1888	5,512,211
1889	5,512,211

Gov. Cornell entered office on the first of January, 1880, and during his official term of three years the taxes reached their lowest point. Gov. Cleveland entered office January 1st, 1883, and we have since had a continuous Democratic administration. The Legislature was Democratic in both houses in 1883. It will be observed that the increase that year over the preceding one was about equal to that which has taken place this year. But there was no accusation of crime against the Democratic Legislature for the increase. Expenses vary from year to year, and it is impossible to gauge one year's appropriations by those of the preceding one.

The Argus shows prudence in going back only thirteen years in search of figures. Suppose we show what a real Democratic administration used to cost the state when the party had full swing. Here is a table of state taxes for the ten years preceding 1876, taken from the Argus Almanac:

Year.	Total taxes.
1866	$5,512,211
1867	5,512,211
1868	5,512,211
1869	5,512,211
1870	5,512,211
1871	5,512,211
1872	5,512,211
1873	5,512,211
1874	5,512,211
1875	5,512,211

If any reader will take pains to add these tables, he will find that the earlier ten years, embracing the administrations of Hoffman and Tilden, and the only period since the war when the Democratic party held sway
for a period of several years, cost the state $10,615,018 more than the later 14 years, when the Democrats had both Governor and Legislature for only a single year. The average per year for the earlier or Democratic period was $13,208,705 per year. The average for the later or what may be called the Republican period, and including the present year, so extravagant in Democratic opinion, is $8,676,531. The difference per year is $5,532,174, or something over two millions more than the terrible increase from 1883 to 1889, over which the Democrats are raising their present howl of extravagance. The heavy taxation inflicted during Hoffman's term was with the pretense of paying the bounty debt, which amounted to $25,807,500 in 1868. For this purpose $4,000,000 per year was raised beginning with 1868. Five years later, when Gen.
Dix became Governor, he found that the bounty debt had been reduced precisely $5,546,744. The rest had been stolen by Democratic thieves. Gov. Hill was a member of the Democratic Legislature of 1871 and 1872, when the appropriations averaged $16,609,000 a year.

The accusation of the Democrats that the appropriations this year were extravagant is not sustained by any specific facts. They have not pointed out a single item that was dishonest, but are content to make a general comparison with a few other years when the Legislature was Republican, taking care not to go back to the Democratic period. But there were extraordinary calls for money that may not arise again in many years. Of this character was the sum appropriated for the Centennial celebration. Then an extra $300,000 was necessary because that sum was withheld by the city of New York pending an adjudication, and a nearly equal sum had to be refunded to taxpayers who proved in court that their assessment was unjust and illegal. The new Court of Appeals created by constitutional amendment had to be provided for,
and large sums had to be appropriated to set the inactive industries of the state prisons in motion. The Governor vetoed the Capital appropriation of $372,000 because it was not large enough, but certainly it was not dishonest. And if anybody believes that he did a public service in vetoing the appropriations for the reformatories, houses of industry, etc., he will be enlightened when he reads the election returns from Rochester and Buffalo.

The history of the Democratic party, as

pecially in its handling of the finances of the state, does not commend its appeal to the people for a restoration of power on the score of economy. The $1,800,000 which
Gov. Hill has cut out of the appropriation bills will go into the treasury and lie idle till the next Legislature meets. If that Legislature is Republican, the surplus will be used with characteristic honesty and prudence. If the Legislature is Democratic—well it is sufficient to recall the Legislatures of Hoffman's time.

THE BREWERY IN POLITICS.

In my opinion any industry which represents a hundred or more millions of dollars in the state should receive some consideration at the hands of the political party. The brewers are one of the most important of the state. We trust to the representatives of the people. Look at the millions we receive each year in the form of taxes. If you suppose the representatives of the people want to legislate these thousands of employees out of a state, they will be sure to find a way. If you suppose the representatives of the people want to legislate these thousands of employees out of a state, they will be sure to find a way. If you suppose the representatives of the people want to legislate these thousands of employees out of a state, they will be sure to find a way.

We do not quote the above because of the bit of arrogance it contains, for the assumption of superior importance by the brewers of the state is quite natural since the assurance which they have received from Gov.
Hill that they are the rulers of the state.
They demand, as brewers, a share of the state offices. Merchants, carpenters, tailors, builders and cotton manufacturers do not put forth such a demand, though they might be tempted to do so if a Governor had turned to them exclusively for support and put his sole trust in them. The brewers want the offices because they conceive that this is necessary to their protection.

And what do they seek to be protected from? Simply from that proportion of taxation that other people believe they ought to pay. Mr. Selfert says the brewers represent $500,000,000 capital in this state. The economous growth of the business which these figures express seems to indicate that brewers have been exceptionally well treated here. In 1880 the entire manufacturing capital of the state was only $514,346,575, and that invested in the manufacture of malt liquors was $275,592,592. The product that year was $35,392,677, and the expenditure for materials and labor $29,736,651. The net profit of the business that year was therefore $5,656,026, or 42.3 per cent on the invested capital.

An equal percentage of profit on the present capital of $500,000,000 would amount to the rather staggering sum of $211,500,000. It is this business which demands such protection as would be afforded by taking absolute control of the state, from paying its small proportion of a high license tax of $3,000,000 that the Legislature has proposed to lay upon the whole saloon, brewery and distillery trade, including wines and "hard" liquors as well as beer. The brewers who are making according to their own showing more than $200,000,000 a year, object to paying a possible $1,500,000 of tax or about seven-tenths of one per cent towards the burdens of the state which their business has so large a share in creating. They are not paying at present one-fourth of this sum. The tax they pay does not amount to one-thirtieth of one per cent on their profits, or one-seventh of one per cent on their capital. A farmer assessed for $10,000 and charged an equal propo-tion of tax would pay a total of $1.43. The laboring man in the city, with a little house assessed $500, would pay the enormous sum of seven cents.

It is these rich brewers who are crying out against all schemes for taxing them more equally. What can they be but Anarchists or Nihilists opposed to all government and unwilling to take any responsibility therefor?
Their very wealth makes them dangerous, whereas wealth in all other lines of business is a conservative and peace protecting force.
These men must not be allowed to rule the state. Their business should be allowed no special favor or protection, but should be subject to the same conditions as other businesses.

PUBLIC OPINION.
The man who went over Niagara Falls in a barrel has unfortunately survived. But the Democratic's attempt to go over the electoral falls in a whisky barrel this fall will prove fatal.—Albany Herald.

Democratic papers are now publishing daily in various papers the names of the Republicans' disclosing a state of painful dissatisfaction in the ranks of the party. It is an old and very thin trick.—Albany Advertiser.

Dan Lamont is Jake Sharp's successor.
Like Jake, Dan is a country bred and has a natural appetite for mills. The Broadway railroad scheme has had enough riding for many years. The application of standard oil lubricant may make its way smooth.—Troy Press.

Sheriff Flack, a Democratic leader in high standing in New York, has been guilty of conduct at once criminal and contemptible in securing a divorce from his wife by means of forgery and false deception. He then married another woman and may be sent to prison for bigamy. But he will not resign his lucrative office and Governor Hill will not remove him. It is a disgraceful situation.—Buffalo Commercial.

Governor Hill might have removed Charles Andrews, Superintendent of the Capitol, long before the latter was made to go, but he did not do it. As in the Flack case, he did not want to "exceed his duty." Mr. Hill's apologists can't make his record clear in the Flack case, and they may as well abandon the effort. Flack stays in office, but it is "Democratic politics" that keeps him there.
That's all there is in the case.—Albany Express.

The Democratic electors of the State of New York
and all other citizens who favor the principles of
taxation, economy and reform, and who are opposed
to INEQUITABLE AND OPPRESSIVE SUMPTUARY LEGISLATION, are invited to elect three delegates and three alternates from each Assembly district to attend a State Convention to be held at Saratoga on Tuesday, the first day of October, 1890, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for State officers, to be voted for at the ensuing election, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

(Signed) Edward Murphy, Jr., Chairman.

COO MITER, Secretary.

A COMPARISON OF EXPENSES.

The Albany Argus publishes the following table of figures to show that the state taxes of 1889 are higher than they have been before in thirteen years. We cheerfully give place to them:

Year.	Total Taxes.
1876.	$2,542,821
1877.	2,741,251
1878.	2,841,251
1879.	2,941,251
1880.	3,041,251
1881.	3,141,251
1882.	3,241,251
1883.	3,341,251
1884.	3,441,251
1885.	3,541,251
1886.	3,641,251
1887.	3,741,251
1888.	3,841,251
1889.	3,941,251

Gov. Cornell entered office on the first of January, 1889, and during his official term of
three years the taxes reached their lowest point, 1889, and we have since had a continuous Democratic administration. The Legislature was Democratic in both houses in 1883. It will be observed that the increase that year over the preceding one was about equal to that which has taken place this year. But there was no accusation of crime against the Democratic Legislature for the increase. Expenses vary from year to year, and it is impossible to gauge one year's appropriations by those of the preceding one.

The Argus shows prudence in going back
only thirteen years in search of figures. Suppose we show what a real Democratic administration used to cost the state when the party had full swing. Here is a table of state taxes for the ten years preceding 1876, taken
from the Argus Almanac:

Year.	Total Taxes.
1866.	$517,460
1867.	527,460
1868.	537,460
1869.	547,460
1870.	557,460
1871.	567,460
1872.	577,460
1873.	587,460
1874.	597,460
1875.	607,460

If any reader will take pains to add these
tables, he will find that the earlier ten years,
embracing the administrations of Hoffman
and Tilden, and the only period since the
war when the Democratic party held sway
for a period of several years, cost the state $10,615,018 more than the later 14 years, when the Democrats had both Governor and Legislature for only a single year.

The average year for the earlier or Democratic period was $13,308,705 per year. The average for the later or Republican period was $13,308,705 per year. The difference between the two periods was $13,308,705 per year.
The average for the later or Republican period was $13,308,705 per year. The difference between the two periods was $13,308,705 per year.

Sherriff Fleck, a Democratic leader in high standing in New York, has been guilty of
conduct at once criminal and contemptible in securing a divorce from his wife by means of forgery and false deception. He then married
another woman and may be sent to prison
for bigamy. But he will not resign his lucrative office and Governor Hill will not remove
him. It is a disgraceful situation.—Buffalo Commercial.

Governor Hill might have removed Charles Andrews, Superintendent of the Capitol, long before the latter was made to go, but he didn't do it. As in the Fleck case, he didn't want to "exceed his duty." Mr. Hill's apologists can't make his record clear in the Fleck case, and they may as well abandon the effort. Fleck stays in office, but it is
"Democratic politics" that keeps him there.
That's all there is in the case.—Albany

Hands, Chilblains, Corns and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures all the above, or no pay required. It funded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Van Deusen Bros., Rondout, and P. J. Clark, Kingston.

AN IMPERATIVE NECESSITY.
What pure air is to a healthy locality, what spring cleaning is to the neat house-keeper, so is Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody this season. The body needs to be thoroughly renovated, the blood purified and vitalized, the germs of disease destroyed.
Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all other blood disorders are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the most popular and successful spring medicine.

FORCED TO LEAVE HOME.
Over 60 people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine. If your blood is bad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated and suffer from indigestion, or if you have a general dyspepsia, call on any druggist to day for a free sample of this grand remedy. The ladies praise it. Every one likes it. Large size package 50 cts.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Shiloh's Kidney is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. J. Clark, Kingston.

DON'T TRIFLE WITH THE TEETH!
If our teeth were renewed as are our nails, they would not need constant care. But teeth don't renew themselves after childhood. The proper thing to do is to use Serravallo's, which preserves their health and beauty. It never fails.

The history of the Democratic party, as

pecially in its handling of the finances of the state, does not commend its appeal to the people for a restoration of power on the score of economy. The $1,800,000 which
Gov. Hill has cut out of the appropriation bills will go into the treasury and lie idle till the next Legislature meets. If that Legislature is Republican, the surplus will be used with characteristic honesty and prudence.
If the Legislature is Democratic—well it is sufficient to recall the Legislature of Hoffman's time.

THE BREWERY IN POLITICS.

In my opinion any industry which represents a hundred or more millions of dollars in the state should be a dominant political party. We do not ask for any legislation. We trust to the sense of the representatives of the people. Look at the millions we receive and the thousands of men we employ. Do you suppose the representatives of the people want to legislate for the benefit of the people? They want to legislate for the benefit of the brewers.
The brewers are a direct party and those who are connected with them are a direct party.

The old dam and race-way uncovered in North Front-street while digging a trench for the First Ward sewers are interesting objects to old residents. This dam is probably 250 years old. It was erected to dam the water of the brook below Green-street and formed a large pond in the hollow between North Front-street and Lincen-avenue. This pond is mentioned in old papers as far back as 1686. Before and during the Revolution it was owned by Nathan Smiles. He used it to run a mill and by him it was conveyed to Benjamin Bogardus. James J. Styles skated on it when a boy in 1806. In 1897 the residents of Green-street and vicinity were greatly afflicted with fever, caused, as was supposed, by the stagnant water of this pond. Several persons died. The Village Directors declared the pond a nuisance and ordered it drained. The owner protested against this summary action. A meeting of taxpayers was held and they decided to pay Bogardus $500 as damages. Then the pond was drained and the fever disappeared.

The "great horse carriage race at Albany" yesterday was rather on the fizzle order. It was largely advertised, and $500 in prizes were announced. The only company that had a running team on the ground at the proper time was Kingston Horse Company, No. 2, of this City. In order to have a contest and prevent the Kingston Horse Company from scoring the money, the members of a running team at Colons were telephoned to, and knowing they would be well paid for coming, the members thereof put in an appearance. The "trial" was a 400-yards dash with a horse carriage, including couplings at a trot and putting on the nozzle. The Kingston team ran first, and their time was given as 67.45 seconds. The Colons team's time was given as 63.45 seconds. Notwithstanding the Kingston team was the only team entered according to the rules governing the race, the officials objected to paying them "second money." Finally they were given that.

In one of the Upton hotels there is a nickel-plated machine where a person can test his strength by lifting a certain weight. The place, who has been lifting on the machine ever since it was put there, has "got the knack of it," and being strong, sends the "pointer" around until it records a large figure. Every time a broad-shouldered man from the country, who prides himself upon his strength, comes to the hotel, he is sure to tackle the machine. Then after he has done his best the champion takes hold and invariably makes the strong man ashamed of himself.

NEWBURGH DEFEATS KINGSTON.

The Base-Ball Contest of Monday Afternoon Was Witnessed by 600 People.

There were 600 people on the Union-Avenue Ball Grounds yesterday afternoon when Empire Peter Fox called the game between the Kingstons and the Whittier Athletic Club of Newburgh. Although there was a wide difference in the scores, the contest was replete with excitement. The crowd appeared pleased notwithstanding the defeat of the home team. In the first inning the Kingstons started off with two runs, and as the visitors were easily blanked in their half of the inning it was presumed that they would be beaten badly. But Walter, the Kingstons' twirler, was taken with what in baseball parlance is called the "rattles." After that the Newburgh players seemed to make runs when they pleased, while Shields, their pitcher, as the contest progressed, got command of the ball, and the batters in making the air in their endeavors to find the sphere. He gave one of the finest exhibitions of pitching ever seen on the grounds, striking out no less than 10 men. One of the most noticeable things about the game was that there was not one left-handed batter among the 18 players. This is seldom seen. Slay, formerly member of the old Kingston Club, of the Hudson River League, played second base for the Newburghs. When he first stepped to the plate with bat in hand he was given an ovation by his many friends. Errors were made on both sides, the Kingstons, however, having the most to their credit. There was some very sharp playing. In one inning Shields started from third for the home-plate. He tripped over Johnston and was thrown several feet with much force. The following are the names of the players, their positions, score by innings, etc.:

THE HUDSON RIVER AND INLAND.

A press dispatch dated Poughkeepsie reads: "The number of people killed by walking on railroad tracks in the Hudson River counties since January 1 last is a matter to which the attention of the State Railroad Commissioners is to be called through an official statement to be made to them by railroad officials and others. In Dutchess County alone the list totals up 15, 10 of which occurred on the New-York Central and Hudson River Railroad and five on the New-York & New-England. An inspection of the verdict in each case shows that the death of the victim arose through his own carelessness, and in 12 cases out of the 15 the person killed was intoxicated. The railroad read say that this dangerous track-walking, though in direct violation of the law of trespass, cannot be checked so long as the Judges in the Courts fail to punish the offenders when brought before them. Time and time again railroad detectives arrest the parties and take them before the courts, with all the necessary witnesses, and nine times out of 10 the offenders are discharged with a simple reprimand. The detectives say they are tired of this wasting time and money with no good result, and will appeal to the State Commissioners. It is estimated that in the River counties through which railroads run the annual death rate from track-walking is about 100 a year."

Although there was a wide difference in the scores, the contest was replete with excitement. The crowd appeared pleased notwithstanding the defeat of the home team. In the first inning the Kingstons started off with two runs, and as the visitors were easily blanked in their half of the inning it was presumed that they would be beaten badly. But the Kingstons' twirler, was taken with what in base-ball parlance is called the "rattles." After that the Newburgh players seemed to make runs when they pleased, while Shields, their pitcher, as the contest progressed, got command of the ball, and the batters fanned the air in their endeavors to find the sphere. He gave one of the finest exhibitions of pitching ever seen on the grounds, striking out no less than 10 men. One of the most noticeable things about the game was that there was not one left-handed batter among the 18 players. The second half of the contest was a member of the old Kingston Club, of the Hudson River League, played second base for the Newburghs. When he first stepped to the plate with bat in hand he was given an ovation by his many friends. Errors were made on both sides, the Kingstons, however, having the better of the credit. There were some very sharp playing in the nine inning Shields started from third for the home-plate. He tripped over Johnston and was thrown several feet with much force. The following are the names of the players, their positions, score by innings, etc.:

THE HUDSON RIVER AND INLAND.
A press dispatch dated Poughkeepsie reads: "The number of people killed by walking on railroad tracks in the Hudson River counties since January 1 last is a matter to which the attention of the State Railroad Commissioners is to be called through an official statement to be made to them by railroad officials and others. In Dutchess County alone the list totals up 15, 10 of which occurred on the New-York Central & Hudson River Railroad and five on the New-York & New England. An inspection of the verdict in each case shows that the death of the victim arose through his own carelessness, and in 12 cases out of the 15 the person killed was intoxicated. The officers of the road say that this dangerous habit of walking, though in direct violation of the law, cannot be checked so long as the Judges in the Courts fail to punish the offenders when brought before them. Time and again again railroad detectives arrest the parties and take them before the courts, with all the necessary witnesses, and nine times out of 10 the offenders are discharged with a simple reprimand. The detectives say they are tired of this wasting time and money with no good result, and will appeal to the State Commissioners. It is estimated that in the River counties through which railroads run the annual death rate from track-walking is about 100 a year."
